BRITAIN REPORTED TO FAVOR TOSSING BACK INTO THE U. N. DISPUTE OVER SUEZ CANAL

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington (AP)—Britain is reported to be advising the United States to toss back into the United Nations Security Council the dispute with Egypt over future operation of the Suez Canal.

Several Allied countries, including Britain, are said to feel that direct American negotiations are making no progress toward getting any major concessions in Egypt's new operating plan.

U. S. Ambassador Raymond A. Hare met for an hour yesterday in Cairo with Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi in a resumption of the negotiations which had been reported deadlocked after four sessions last week.

The Egyptian plan would keep canal operation entirely under Egyptian control, with all tolls paid directly to that country.

The United States seeks modifications to give greater protection for shipping companies of user nations.

Jerusalem (AP)—Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion began today a much-postponed vacation amid appearances of a general relaxation of the atmosphere in Israel as it prepared for the Passover holidays.

This news tended to dissipate rumors, printed abroad, which until yesterday were picturing Israel as ready to begin an attack on her Arab neighbor, Jordan.

Ben-Gurion, 70, will take probably two weeks of rest in an undisclosed retreat, and be away from his post over the Passover holidays which begin at sundown Monday. Apparently he felt the crisis has eased enough for him to take a vacation.

Maj. Gen. Moshe Dayan, Israeli chief of staff, also is away from his post on his annual leave, and the Israeli army is granting holiday leaves for many regular soldiers. There is no sign on the surface of any call-up of reservists such as occurred in the three or four days preceding the campaign in Egypt last October.

In addition, Israel's Knesset is scheduled to recess tomorrow until May 20.

Hearing on Moon Appeal Delayed to Week of April 22nd

A slight delay on the part of Moon's defense attorneys in filing briefs with Pennsylvania Supreme Court in Philadelphia has given the condemned man another short extension of life expectancy.

Attorney Thomas Waggoner said in Uniontown today that he had just been informed by Supreme Court clerk that Moon's appeal for a new trial decision has been delayed from the week of April 15th to the week of April 22nd.

Waggoner and co-defense counsel Edward Dumbauld will be notified by telegram some day that week on which morning they are to appear, before the highest tribunal in the state.

Meanwhile, Norman W. Moon is spending his time in Western Penitentiary, Pittsburgh. The 31-year-old former Connellsville contractor has a birthday in May.

United Fund for County To Be Investigated by C. of C.

The Warren Area Chamber of Commerce board of directors, expressing concern over the multiplicity of fund drives in this community, last night voted to make study of the possibility of establishing a United Fund in Warren county. The problem was referred to the Civic Affairs committee of the Chamber headed by Kermit Forsgren.

According to a report of the setting as submitted to the Chamber, the purpose of a United Fund would be to consolidate all of the financial campaigns to a once-a-year drive which would be a saving in manpower, cost, and expense and remove the present annoyance of being solicited almost once a month for some charity cause.

The Civic Affairs committee will report back to the Chamber Board after making its investigation of the problems involved in such a program.

In other business last night the following were accepted into membership in the C. of C.—Anundson Construction Co., Sheffield; E. J. Scalise, beer distributor, 701 Conewago avenue; Dr. John Thompson and Dr. Ralph Peters of Youngsville; Allegheny Hotel, 2101 Pennsylvania avenue east; Dr. Robert Donaldson, 513 Third avenue west, and Warren Building and Construction, Carl Werner, Russell.

The membership of the Chamber has now reached 480 toward a goal of 500 in the year 1957.

Temperature Continues Little Below Normal

By The Associated Press
Extended forecast for Thursday, April 11 through Monday, April 15:
Western Pennsylvania, western New York and West Virginia: Temperature will average 3 to 5 degrees below normal, warmer Thursday, colder Friday and Saturday, warmer Sunday and colder again Monday night, rain Thursday night and Friday, rain south and rain or snow north Monday, total precipitation one third to one half inch.

Paris Puts on Glittering Show For Royal Pair

Paris, (AP)—Queen Elizabeth got the third day of her state visit to France off to an early start today despite a late night that saw Paris put on its biggest celebration since the liberation and V-E Day.

Nor did last night's spectacular river bank pageantry, fireworks and parties all over town, in the visiting British monarch's honor keep the Parisians in bed this morning. The crowds again were out in force when the smiling, radiant Queen and Prince Philip arrived 10 minutes ahead of schedule at the British Embassy for a tree planting ceremony.

The President also said it is an age-old truth that the security of any nation never should be measured entirely in terms of troop strength. Such things as spiritual, intellectual and economic qualities also must be taken into account.

Then he went on to say he admires the courage and the nerve of the British government in deciding to take what he called a new look at its military program. The President recalled that his own administration did that same thing back in 1953.

Eisenhower turned up at the news conference with the tip of his nose quite red and with a tiny scab.

Last week, he had only a pimple there.

With a smile, Eisenhower volunteered that his press secretary, James C. Hagerty, had insisted he explain things to the newsmen.

Report Received by Hospital Board on Remodeling Project

The Warren General Hospital board of directors yesterday reaffirmed its decision to remodel the old maternity building into a chronic convalescent and rehabilitation center even though no federal funds are available to help finance the project, it was stated in a release from the publicity committee today.

Neil Culbertson, chairman of a special projects committee, told the board that the building did not qualify for federal Hill-Burton funds but that preliminary architectural plans had been approved by the state department of welfare.

Mr. Culbertson, Hospital Administrator Joseph Williamson and architect Richard McCarthy of Beck and Timken recently went to Harrisburg and conferred with state health department officials about the local project.

Total cost of the project is estimated at about $125,000 with $54,400 now available from the Ford Foundation grant. Holger Elmquist, chairman of the finance committee, told the directors that the balance needed probably could be obtained from the hospital's capital funds and without a public subscription.

The recommendation of the finance committee was accepted unanimously by the Board and plans will go forward for the building which has been named the Alice Wetmore Jefferson Pavilion.

FOUR HURT IN BLAST

Pittsburgh (AP)—Four men were in South Side Hospital today with burns suffered when a boiler water line burst and showered them with scalding water at the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. plant on Second avenue. Two others were treated and were sent home following the mishap yesterday. They were repairing the boiler. All six live in the Pittsburgh district.

IKE DISCUSSES MANY TOPICS WITH PRESS

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
Washington (AP)—President Eisenhower said today he admires Great Britain's courage and nerve in deciding to put its military program on a new look, streamlined basis.

Eisenhower was asked at his news conference to comment on such British decisions as the conclusion that the home islands cannot be adequately defended against atomic attack.

Asked about the impact of those decisions on other North Atlantic Treaty Organization countries, Eisenhower replied there is no question that Britain's new program has disturbed some NATO nations.

But he went on to say that Britain has had a hard time in recent years—has had an heroic row to hoe in trying to keep its economic nose above water.

Responding to another question, Eisenhower said Britain's intentions to streamline its military forces were thoroughly discussed with him when he met with Prime Minister Macmillan in Bermuda last month.

Eisenhower noted that Britain's decision to cut back its ground forces simply means in some cases that ceremonial regiments, such as the one in Bermuda, are being eliminated.

The President also said it is an age-old truth that the security of any nation never should be measured entirely in terms of troop strength. Such things as spiritual, intellectual and economic qualities also must be taken into account.

Then he went on to say he admires the courage and the nerve of the British government in deciding to take what he called a new look at its military program. The President recalled that his own administration did that same thing back in 1953.

Eisenhower turned up at the news conference with the tip of his nose quite red and with a tiny scab.

Last week, he had only a pimple there.

With a smile, Eisenhower volunteered that his press secretary, James C. Hagerty, had insisted he explain things to the newsmen.

Three Oil City Women Inherit Large Sums

Clearwater, Fla. (AP)—The will of the late Mrs. Jane C. Maitland of nearby Ozone, disposing of an estate of more than a million dollars, was filed to probate with County Judge Jack White.

Mrs. Maitland left the bulk of the income of the estate of $1,040,000 in trust for two nieces, Sarah C. Hodgkinson and Helen C. Foster, both of Oil City, Pa. A sister of Mrs. Maitland, Miss Bertha Cribbs, also of Oil City, will receive the net income during her lifetime, except for minor bequests.

Mrs. Maitland, widow of a Pennsylvania industrialist, Arthur C. Maitland, died in Oil City, March 21. She had lived in Ozone for 25 years.

Still Few Tickets Available for the Symphony Concert

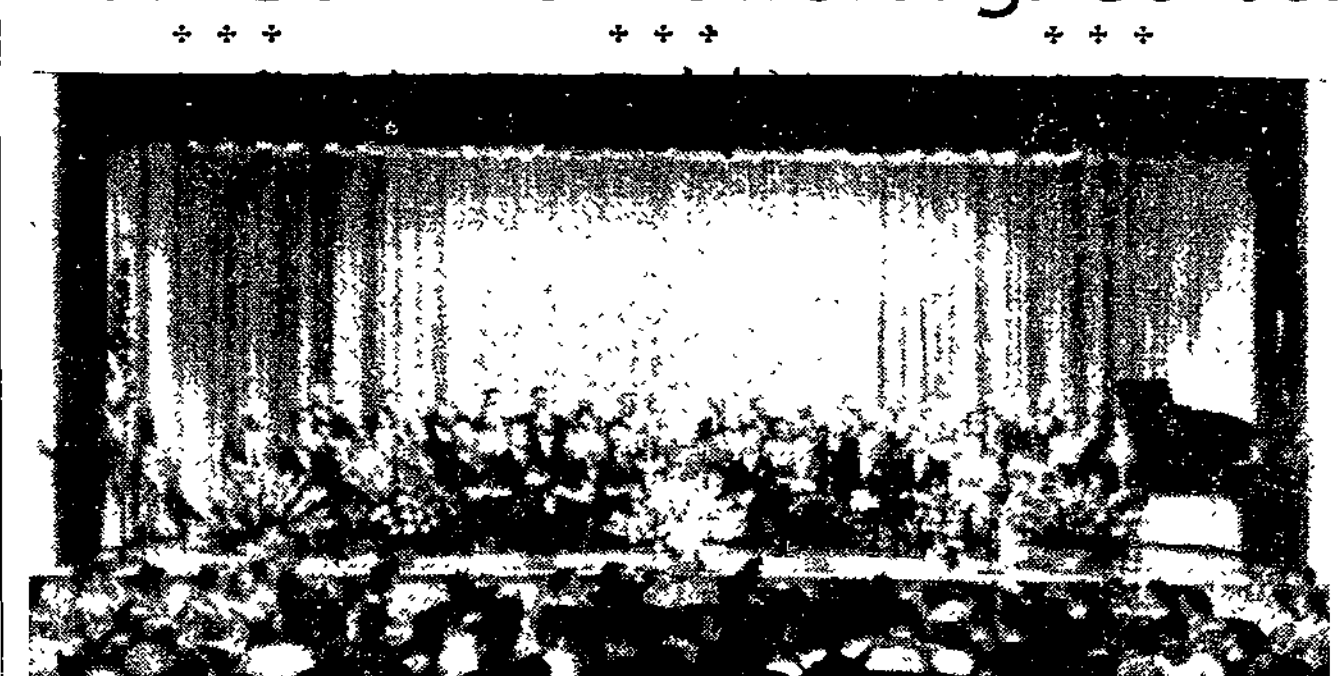

If about 50 persons turn out tonight and purchase tickets at the box office for the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra concert in Beatty Auditorium there will be a full house for the event.

Allen Anderson, ticket chairman, said today that ticket sales picked up yesterday and a late check revealed that there were only 50 seats unsold for the 8:15 concert tonight.

These tickets will go on sale tonight at 7:15 with adult price $3.00 and student admission $1.00. All proceeds remain in Warren for the benefit of the swimming pool and youth canteen funds administered by the Warren Recreation Board.

Tonight's concert by the 90-piece world famous orchestra is sponsored by the Manufacturer's Light and Heat Company which pays all expenses incurred in the project. William Steinberg, musical director and conductor, will be on the podium and the cello soloist will be Theo Salzman.

Personal Message From President Highlights Formal Dedication of New Gen. Eisenhower High School

The above Timesphoto by Saylor was taken during the new Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower High School Tuesday evening, which was high-chief executive.

"A new era of education is beginning in Farmington Township." With those words, plus a personal message of congratulation from the president of the United States, Northern Area Joint School System formally dedicated its new $1,500,000 Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower High School Tuesday evening before a large crowd in the school auditorium.

The event capped official dedication events of the past six days, high attendance point of which was Sunday when an estimated 5,000 persons swarmed through the building during an Open House.

Eisenhower High School is built to handle 600 students and by so doing, "this area has come a long way in education since 1803 when Hugh Marsh first began teaching his own children and a few others at his home." Those were the words of school board member John H. Stewart who presided at last night's program.

Attorney Stewart then traced the development of education in Farmington Township, pointing out that in 1805 when the first log school was constructed by Hugh Marsh and his brother near Marsh-town, the township was a part of Brokenstraw Township, at that time the only formally laid out township in Warren County. He also mentioned that this original Marsh was the great-great-grandfather of Floyd Marsh, a member of the present school board.

He drew a humorous comparison between the split logs which served as slab seats in 1805 and the many "sits" performed by present school board members in attempting to give current students the best possible seat fit.

Program opened with a musical prelude by EHS Band directed by Albert Lyford. The Rev. David Harrisburg (AP)—State police were summoned today to maintain order at a legislative committee hearing into operations of the state Pardons Board.

Chairman Edwin W. Tompkins (R-Cameron) called for a state policeman after a former Pardons Board member interrupted the hearing with a loud demand to make a statement.

"This is striking at the very foundations of our whole system of jurisprudence," shouted Henry E. Harner, former commonwealth secretary and former board member.

Sen. Robert D. Fleming (R-Allegheny) made the demand for state police intervention.

"Call the state police if this man does not shut up," Fleming declared in a shouting voice reaching above that of Harner who was still demanding to be heard.

The committee had several witnesses scheduled to tell an open hearing their version of what led to the computations last year for David Darcy and two companions. Almost eight years after their 1947 conviction Darcy, Harold Foster and Harry Zietz were spared from electrocution by Gov. Leader on unanimous recommendation of the board.

16 Registrants Leaving For Cumberland Tuesday

Warren County Selective Service Board 162 announces it will send a contingent of 16 registrants to New Cumberland next Tuesday evening, April 16, for induction into the Army on Wednesday.

James G. Slate, Warren, has been designated leader for the following group: James W. Bailey, Thomas E. Colvir, Klaus Feiler (transferred from Wheeling, W. Va.), Guenther Laewen, and Kenneth S. J. Sperry, Warren.

Robert L. Campbell, William W. Campbell, Leonard R. Mahood, Clarendon; Ralph E. Davis, Jr., Albert L. Thieme, Corry; Merle W. Greenawalt, Warren RD; Stanley F. Jackson, Russell; Jack R. Jordan, Bear Lake RD; Larry K. Long, Youngsville; Clyde L. Miller, McKean, Pa.

Another group of 11 registrants will be sent by the local board on April 17 for pre-induction physicals at New Cumberland.

Dissident Dems Hold Meeting; Name Their Own Chairman

The faction of Warren County Democrats who claim dissatisfaction with the way the party has been run the past year, banded together in Pittsfield Community Center last evening and elected Robert Clark of Youngsville as "Warren County Democratic Committee Chairman."

This rather complicated Democratic picture because Warren County already has Democratic Committee Chairman Chester Walker who is the only one who has received recognition by the state committee.

However, the dissident faction now officially headed by Clark claimed that between 55 and 60 committee men and women were at Pittsfield last night. A majority of county Democratic committee members is 51.

To confuse the issue further, both Walker and Clark announced today that they will name their executive and finance committee members in the near future.

Delbert Anderson of Pleasant Township presided as chairman pro tempore last night. Elected vice chairmen were Delbert Anderson, Thomas Conway, Doris Hewitt of Russell and Helen Long of Warren.

Clark received the only chairman nomination last evening and was unanimously elected. Observers said "Harmony reigned" at the session.

JUNK YARD LAW

Pittsburgh (AP)—State Superior Court is considering the legality of an ordinance passed last year by Harborcreek Twp., near Erie, that prohibits the maintenance and operation of auto junk yards. The ordinance was challenged yesterday by counsel for Raymond Christopher a junk yard operator who was arrested and fined $100 last October for violating the law. Erie County Court upheld the ordinance and dismissed an appeal by Christopher last Jan. 2.

Three-Minute Stops in Warren Is Feature of New Train Sked

Warren's famed "Cannonball" and "Rattler," numbers 580 and 581 of Pennsylvania Railroad's Northern Express, have rejuvenated their iron horses by rescheduling and peeled an hour from the run between Erie and Emporium. C. E. Cauley, PRR freight and passenger agent in Warren, said this morning that beginning Sunday, April 28, with the advent of Daylight Savings Time, the two trains would stop in Warren only three minutes.

All express mail formally picked up by shuttle from the South Side spur, will be trucked to Ridgway and picked up there. Same is true of the milk car, said Mr. Cauley.

The new scheduling also includes among other things a new-type roomette sleeping car and an optional ticket arrangement permitting travelers to go to Washington via Philadelphia without extra charge.

Under new schedules, Train 580 will leave Erie at 7:40 p. m., arrive Emporium 12:05 a. m., saving 50 minutes. Returning, Train 581 leaves Emporium 5:30 a. m., arrives Erie 10 a. m., saving an hour and 10 minutes over present schedule.

Warren County taxes jump one and one-half mills this year. County Commissioners this morning set the 1957 tax rate at eight mills for county purposes and two and one-half mills for County Institutional District.

This makes a total of 10½ mills tax for each dollar of assessed valuation, which totals in Warren county approximately $33,500,000.

Warren Borough also jumped its tax rate this year, from 25 to 26 mills per dollar of assessed evaluation. Borough school taxes held the line at 25 mills.

Actually, Warren County tax rate for 1957 is only one-half mill higher than the ten-mill levy of 1955 when county purpose assessment was six mills and institutional assessment four mills.

In 1955, gimlet-eyed commissioners peeled one mill from institutional rates and reduced that to three, making an assessment of nine mills.

This year, the county mapping program and reassessment, plus inauguration of social security coverage for county employees when coupled to rising costs has meant an additional $71,000 in the budget. This hiked up the county purpose levy from six mills' last year to eight in 1957.

But commissioners pulled out the pinkish shears again when dealing with institutional expenditures and by careful management believe they will be able to operate this year on $5,000 less than the $125,125 spent last year. This allowed the 1957 institutional millage rate to drop again this year from three to two and one-half mills.

Lion's share of the institutional budget is $60,000 for Rouse Home. Another $10,000 goes to Warren General Hospital, $3,500 for Children's Aid and Crippled Children, and a larger sum for maintenance costs of penal and reformatory institutional care outside the county.

Bill Provides Death Penalty for Selling Drugs to Children

Harrisburg (AP)—Legislation to permit the death penalty for the sale of narcotics to teen-agers reached the Senate today after being passed by the House.

The bill, patterned after a federal law, gained approval in the lower chamber 122-62 after some debate.

"Even though this is a horrible crime, it is going pretty far to allow a jury to recommend the death penalty in a drug case," Rep. Albert S. Readinger, Democratic floor leader, said yesterday. "I'm fearful this is going further than we should go."

Rep. Edwin W. Tompkins (R-Cameron), who sponsored the bill, said "our children of Pennsylvania are precious to us."

"We feel ourselves only in line with the federal government in imposing the death penalty," he added. Tompkins pointed out that the bill does not make the death penalty mandatory.

The House action followed a Senate committee hearing on a similar bill.

WIN WASHINGTON TRIP—All members of Baltimore Life Insurance Company office in Warren have met or surpassed their company-set quotas for 1959 and by so doing have won the privilege to attend an all-expense paid "Honor Club of 1959" weekend in Washington, D. C. From left above are: Troy McElroy and Val Flaherty, Corry office agents who also qualified; Anthony Cerando; staff superintendent; Robert Morrison, John Novak and Jerry Peters, all of Warren. The fact that all Warren agents qualified also has made it possible for office clerk Margaret C. Mohr to be in Washington April 12 to 14.

Mirrored in Our Times

"Celeron's Dream"—The Best Variety of 1957—presented last week by some 400 students, provided one of the most surprising evenings of entertainment viewed thus far in the community. From start till finish the program was refreshing and utterly delightful. Choral groups offered the most enjoyable music augmented by an obviously talented and well-rehearsed orchestra. Subtle humor spiced a view of Warren and a good time was had by all who participated as well as the countless in attendance. We may be justly proud of these young people—and we must extend extra credit for faculty members who planned, directed and produced the affair.

It's not often that a columnist deliberately tries to "lay an egg"—but that's our purpose today. And, believe us, it's not just any old, run-of-the-mill egg either! Any connection with the hen-house variety is a mistake, cause we're in cahoots with the Easter bunny . . . and we're launching a special campaign to assure the kinds of an annual treat (and a good one, too). It's one thing to hide an Easter egg—but there's no point in trying to hide top quality. Let's bring the case out in the open. Wouldn't you feel easier on April 21st if you know your children are consuming candy eggs that are both delicious and pure?—don't you prefer freshness? Course you do—and so does Junior! They'll revel in yummy cream eggs with golden centers and you can order them right now!

Make it a Fanny Farmer Easter—no need to hunt for the best "egg" in town. Order your needed supply now at the Warren Drug Store. Delicious candy Easter eggs—fresh, wholesome—top quality in every way. Priced at 35c or 65c—here's the kind of treat—you want the kids to eat!

The only thing to be said of the recent heavy snow is that it put off the job of cleaning the cellar. We don't have a playroom or den in the cellar—but the kids do play there. If anybody needs a couple of dried up paint brushes; empty paint cans; odds and ends of lumber; an empty bird cage; or what have you, just call on us! Somebody evidently opened up a keg of nails and spilled the contents and other stuff piled up in the cellar. However, in the upper regions, we're more fortunate—there's nothing—but nothing—stored in the attic. No clothes packed in moth balls and no knick knacks—just one carton of books and p'raps an owl or a couple of bats.

And speaking of bats—you'll be batting a thousand if you select your spring suits for the Easter parade at The Style Shop. Here's the place where men congregate to find their clothing needs. Join the parade of well-dressed citizens—meet 'em at The Style Shop.

One last word about the snow—maybe it happened in your household—we just couldn't find enough gloves or mittens to go around. It happens every year—either one of ours eats 'em—or we have a pack rat that steals 'em—or they just disappear in mystic matter. Last we heard—each boy was wearing one of a pair and keeping the other hand in his pocket.

It's April—time to fight Cancer with a Check-up and a Check!

AWARD FOR KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL

Kiwanis International has received a Freedoms Foundation Distinguished Service Award and Key Club International, the Kiwanis-sponsored high school boys' service organization, has won a Freedoms Foundation George Washington Medal, according to Lee J. Borger, president of the Kiwanis Club of Warren.

The two awards carry the same prestige in the community service field as do the famed "Oscars" in the motion picture field and the "Emmies" in the TV field.

Kiwanis International received its award — the highest that the Freedoms Foundation can bestow — for the "1956 Kiwanis program". This program included U. S.-Canada Good Will Week, Kids' Day, the Kiwanis Teacher Recruitment Program, the Youth Panel Forum Program, Kiwanis' participation in National Radio Week and National Newspaper Week. Ballot Battalion (the Kiwanis get-out-the-vote campaign), and Prayer for Permanent Peace Week.

Key Club's award for the 1956 Key Club program of carrying out the organization's patriotic and forward-looking theme and objectives.

This is the sixth time Kiwanis has been honored with a Freedoms Foundation award. This is the second consecutive year for a Distinguished Service Award. Key Club International has won Freedoms Foundation awards for three consecutive years.

IT CAN BE DONE

The Biblical story of David and Goliath lends hope to those who battle against tremendous odds, reminds The Bradford Era. There doubtless were few on either side of that long-ago battle line that ever dreamed David with his slingshot would have been any kind of match for the towering giant. Yet, knowledge, skill and the help of Divine Providence led David to take the victory over what appeared to be vastly superior odds!

The dread dragon of cancer obviously made quite a head start in its battle against man before knowledge and skill showed the necessary progress to make it a real contest. Today, while great advances are being recorded, the odds are not yet completely favorable.

While cancer, diagnosed in time, can be cured; while countless lives are being saved through detection in time; while great strides are being made in research, care and treatment; much remains to be done.

The David of cancer control is growing in stature but the slingshot of knowledge still needs building up through your support.

Marvelous achievements have been made; yet much remains to be done. It is not an overpowering task — far from it. But it is a vital challenge. Scientists are lined up against the giant. You can help the slingshot aim true with your financial support this month—Cancer Month.

Cancer, like the giant in the Bible story, can be overcome. But it takes faith, knowledge and your understanding and support.

WELCOME TO PITTSBURGH ORCHESTRA

The Times-Mirror is happy to join others in the community in extending a welcome to the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, scheduled to play a concert at Beatty Auditorium this evening starting at 8:15 o'clock.

Music lovers of the area owe a debt of gratitude to the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company for making possible the appearance of this outstanding musical organization in Warren. All expenses of the concert are paid by the Manufacturers, with the entire proceeds of the ticket sale being donated to local recreation projects including a proposed municipal swimming pool and the youth canteen.

Considering the fact that Warren is one of the smallest towns to be visited by the orchestra, there is reason for residents to feel signally honored.

Here and There

Yesterday's edition was not even cold from the press when Arthur Fehman of Russell called in to inform letter-writer Fern Olson that indeed, the Conewango creek stage has been gauged since 1937 when the new bridge was constructed to replace the Russellburg covered span. Art knows because since then he has been in charge of recording the Conewango creek depth each day and sending in a report card to Pittsburgh governmental weather office each week. First gauge was a simple weighted and calibrated chain suspended from the bridge. This is still there but now an automatic registering gauge is enclosed in a small building just down from the bridge. Art checks this from time to time, makes sure it's working. Creek level yesterday. Fern was 6.97 feet of water flowing under the bridge. Creek flooding stage is not reached below eight feet, remarked Mr. Fehman. Highest he ever saw was 12 feet during the 1936 flood. Art, incidentally, is definitely opposed to Kinzua Dam. A little dredging he said, would save the country about $100,000,000. Art also voiced the opinion that just by scooping out that bar in the Allegheny river by Warren Airport would reduce the water level here by two or three feet. And another thing to remember, said the astute Mr. Fehman, "is that they haven't got the bed rock at Kinzua to support the type of dam and amount of water" which is talked about. "Alright out at Boulder Dam," he mused, "where they had to blast through solid granite," points Mr. Fehman.

Mrs. Alga C. Pierce, 709 Lexington avenue, this city, has been elected to a study membership in the International Grapho Analysis Society, Inc. of Springfield, Missouri, world famous home of scientific character analysis from handwriting. It was announced today. For more than a quarter of a century people of all professions have studied and mastered grapho analysis. ### Washington Letter

BY DOUGLAS LARSEN and KENNETH O. GILMORE

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Pakistan Ambassador Mohammed Ali is one of the most successful hosts in town because he takes a personal interest in seeing that each guest has a good time and gets enough to eat.

Other evening at his crowded, lavish Pakistan Independence Day reception he was working as hard as a headwaiter who expects a $20 tip.

He raced to the kitchen to get more fresh strawberries for a guest who had missed them in the dessert line.

He paused to hold a woman's purse while she cut a huge hunk of wonderful chicken that had been cooked in a special garlic sauce.

He braved the mobs at the bars innumerable times to get champagne refills for elderly guests. And he had a special word of greeting for each person.

At too many big receptions you're lucky to get a grunt from the host in the receiving line. At this rate Ambassador Ali will end up forcing the other hosts to start enjoying their own parties.

NILS LENNARTSON, special assistant to Treasury Secretary George Humphrey, taking a tip from his boss, decided he would cut the budget in his own office by canceling the special Dow-Jones financial news wire. The cost was $1,680 per year and he decided that the department could wait until the next day to get the same news in the newspaper.

When word of the cancellation got to Dow-Jones in New York, a representative came screaming down to protest. But Nils was ready for him.

"Don't blame me," Nils said to the D-J man, "I really got the idea from you people."

He shoved at the man a half-dozen editorials from the Wall Street Journal—the same wall ber, said the astute Mr. Fehman, "is that they haven't got the bed rock at Kinzua to support the type of dam and amount of water" which is talked about. "Alright out at Boulder Dam," he mused, "where they had to blast through solid granite," points Mr. Fehman.

credit evaluation, teaching principles, and many other fields are open to trained professional grapho analysts. Grapho analysis is widely recognized in industry and business. In the Spring of 1955 the Society received the first adoption of its year's study text by a four year college where the instructor is a grapho analysis member. Mrs. Pierce, upon completing study with the Society will be awarded a certificate which is recognized throughout the world.

Quaker City Teen-Agers Give Presley Deafening Welcome

By TOM BRENNAN
Philadelphia (AP)—The pony-tail and dripping sideburns set turned out in a leather-lunged mass Friday night, paying $2 to $3.50 for the ecstasy of drowning out Elvis Presley with their screams.
The din was deafening. The quivering Presley had only to in- one an opening syllable to set off a torrent of squeals and shrieks. The result was that in three-quarters of an hour of Presley's vocalizing, no more than five minutes was heard above the clamor.
A flick of "The Pelvis" little finger was enough to spring some of the teen-agers out of their chairs. Though noisy, the crowd was otherwise fairly well behaved. Presley performed at the Arena in two shows, one at 7 p. m. and another at 9, with 3,029 on hand for the first and 2,557 in the 6,500-seat auditorium for the second.
Before the show, reporters asked Presley all sorts of questions. Here is a sampling of his answers:
On his durability as a performer: "Well, some people will always like you and some people won't if they stop liking me, I can always go back to driving a truck. I may not last, but I take it as it comes, one day at a time."
On his collection of automobiles: "I've got eight now, three of them sports cars. Including a little Jaguar."
On his reported romance with screen actress Natalie Wood: "There's nothin' to it."

Pre-School Tests At Sugar Grove To Be Held April 16th

Floyd J. Nobbs, principal of Sugar Grove Grade School, announces pre-school tests and registration will be held from 1:00 to 3:00 p. m. April 16 at the school building.
All children who will be five years and seven months of age before September 1, 1957, are eligible to enter school, providing tests show the required degree of maturity and ability to do first grade work. No children will be enrolled in the first grade until so tested.
Parents are asked to bring their children's birth certificates (not hospital certificates) at registration time; also vaccination certificates if these are available.

Plastic Pill To Tell the Inside Story of Man's Digestive Tract

New York (AP)—A plastic pill packed with a tiny radio is ready to tell the inside story of man's digestive tract.
The one-inch radio station was demonstrated at the Rockefeller Institute.
A patient can swallow the pill with a drink of water. The radio in the capsule broadcasts information as it passes through the stomach and intestines.
A doctor holds a radio receiver close to the patient's body and picks up the signals from inside. The traveling radio transmits data on muscular contractions and fluid or gaseous pressures.
The radio is a tiny transistor oscillator. It has a life of from 15 to 24 hours.
The capsule takes from two to six days to pass through the body.
Dr. Vladimir K. Zorykin, television tube pioneer, and Dr. John T. Farrar of the New York Veterans Administration hospital demonstrated the pill. Zorykin designed the pill at Farrar's suggestion.
Zorykin said the cost of development was $10,000. He estimated the pills could be mass-produced for $25 or $30 apiece.
The pill has been tested on two patients. Further tests are getting under way at the veterans hospital.

Two Killed in Avalanche Started With Cannon Fire

Empire, Colo. (AP)—Deliberately started with cannon fire, a snowslide yesterday killed a cameraman filming the action and a highway worker warning motorists to stay away.
The photographer's helper, Roland Wyatt, 18, of Salt Lake City, was trapped in the fringe of the avalanche and clawed his way out from under two feet of snow.
John Hermann, 26, Salt Lake City movie cameraman, and Wayne S. Whitlock, 23, Empire, maintenance worker for the Colorado Highway Department, suffocated under tons of snow, rock and trees. Their bodies were later recovered.

Pennsylvania Sets Best Forest Fire Record In History

Harrisburg (Special)—Pennsylvania had its best forest-fire record in history in 1956, but the chairman of the Pennsylvania Forest Industries Committee today warned that coming weeks of spring weather might bring high hazard conditions to the woodlands.
Jubilant over figures just compiled by the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters, Ed O. Ehrhart of Johnstown said the state had 560 fires which burned over 6,900 acres in 1956—the lowest burned-over area since organized fire control was started about the turn of the century.

The record represents a 55 per cent drop from the 1955 total of 1,261 fires which burned over 32,783 acres. The 1956 mark is also approximately 50 per cent better than Pennsylvania's average annual forest-fire figures of 1,225 fires on 38,152 acres.
Ehrhart said that while wet weather undoubtedly was a factor, increased awareness of fire danger by the general public played a major role in keeping losses low. He credited forest-fire-prevention campaigns such as the Keep America Green program, with which the committee cooperates, for bringing about the public awareness.
"Forest industries naturally are very pleased with the record," Ehrhart said, "because we are vitally dependent upon continuing crops of wood. However, there is not now, and never will be room for complacency. Despite the excellency of the Department of Forests and Waters' fire protection system, a fire holocaust is still possible in Pennsylvania with the right combination of wind, dryness and careless individual to touch it off."

This year, the industry leader said, "we would like to equal or better last year's record, regardless of the weather. Doing this will require the continued cooperation of everyone in being careful with fire when around the woods."
Australia leads the world in wool production. Its annual clip from 131,000,000 sheep sells for about $900,000,000.

SHARON HOSPITAL HEAD
Sharon (AP)—Eugene J. O'Meara, assistant superintendent at Altoona Hospital since 1953, today was named administrator of Sharon General Hospital. He will assume the post June 1. O'Meara will succeed C. Robert Youngquist who is leaving Sharon to take a similar post at the Shady-side Hospital in Pittsburgh. Youngquist is president of the Pennsylvania Hospital Assn.

MUNICIPAL PARKING LOT
McKeesport (AP)—The McKeesport Parking Authority agreed last night to build a new parking lot in midtown. McKeesport council agrees to subsidize a $13,000 yearly deficit. The parking lot, which would cost about $100,000, would provide space for 98 autos.

Northern Area PTA Has Unusually Fine Program Banquet for Hoopsters For Republican Women

AWED... SOC... MUST... Much interest is being shown in the April meeting of Warren County Council of Republican Women, to be held Thursday evening at eight at the Y.W.C.A. activities building.

In keeping with the Easter season, Mrs. C. W. Baldwin will present a program entitled "This is Easter". In addition the Warren Boy Choir will be on hand to perform in the polished and delightful manner for which it is noted. In announcing these arrangements, Mrs. Fred Plummer, program chairman for the Council, assures everyone who can attend an interesting and inspirational program.

Miss Mina Rieder, Council president will conduct the business meeting. A door prize will be awarded as a part of the evening's activities and there will be a special award for the person responsible for bringing the largest group of women to the meeting.

Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the evening by Mrs. Stanley Lawson and her committee of ladies from North Warren and Venturatown. A social period will follow.

It is urged that all members of Council plan to attend this meeting, and a cordial invitation is also extended to all interested women throughout the county.

The newly-elected slate of officers will be installed at the May meeting.

ALTAR-ROSARY SOCIETY
Members of the Altar-Rosary Society of Holy Redeemer church will have a tureen dinner and business meeting at 6:30 p. m. Thursday in the church hall. Each is asked to bring a tureen and table service, the committee will provide coffee.

GOLDEN AGE SOCIETY HAS FINE MEETING
Despite wintry weather there was a good turnout for the Monday afternoon meeting of Golden Age Society, held at the Y.W.C.A. activities building. Fourteen members were seated at the Birthday Table and special cakes were the gift of Mrs. Margaret Wendelboe and Mrs. Mills.

A brief business session was held and regret was expressed that Robert Hockenberry, scheduled speaker, had been called home by the sudden illness of his father. Mrs. Mills gave an Easter reading and Mr. Rogers told of his trip to Alaska several years ago. Object of the trip was opening of a branch bank and incidents related proved very interesting. Group singing was enjoyed and Mr. Draffon thanked members for glasses brought for the collection to be sent to New York.

Next meeting of the group will be April 22.

FREE METHODIST CHURCH EVENTS
Wednesday—7:30, Prayer and Praise meeting in the prayer room.
Thursday—7:00, Christian Youth Crusade, with all young people of the church participating under the leadership of Charles W. Lyon.
7:30, Sunday school board meeting, members to note the change in date from Tuesday, 9:00. Women's Bible Class will meet in the parsonage, 135 Conewango avenue.
Saturday—7:30, first meeting of the Warren County Holiness Youth Crusade will be held at the Warren Church of the Nazarene, with its pastor Rev. John Andree, as speaker. All young folks of the county are invited.

FOREST COUNTY HOME EC SCHEDULE
April 12—1:30 p. m., county-wide "Slenderella" meeting at Thonesta fire hall.
April 16—4:00 p. m. Clarington 4-H meeting at the home of Mrs. Samuel Mays.
April 18—10:00 a. m., Neiltown group at the home of Mrs. Clyde Waddell, with "Accessories for You" as the topic, 4:00 p. m., Smoky Hill 4-H meeting at the home of Mrs. Arthur Benninger.
The 4-H meetings are Home Economics Club organization sessions and all young people in the areas are welcome.

IN COLLEGE ORATORIO
Patty Harrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harrington, is a member of the Connecticut College and sang with that group in its annual Lenten oratorio at the New London school on Sunday.
The joint performance with the Yale University Glee Club featured Bach's B Minor Mass and will be repeated at Yale on April 14.

ZONTA LUNCHEON
Zonta Club members will hold their regular luncheon-meeting at 12:15 p. m. Thursday at the Y.W.C.A. activities building.

The Mature Parent

If Mom Keeps Crying 'Wolf,' No Wonder He Won't Obey

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

MARVIN's mother came out of the market just as he was pocketing a tangerine from the sidewalk fruit stand. She paused shifted her bag of groceries from one hip to the other and said, "Put that back—or a policeman will get you."

He ignored her. Instead of returning the fruit, he darted down the street. At the corner he turned and unhurriedly proceeded to peel it. By the time his mother drew abreast of him, he had nearly finished eating it. Resignedly she said, "O. K. You'll get it some day, you'll see."

She was right. Some day, Marvin may indeed get it. But it won't be his fault. It will be the fault of bad training—discipline by threat of disaster. For years, he's been hounded by warnings like these:

"Stop fooling with that gas jet—or you'll blow the house up."

"Come out of that puddle or you'll catch your death of cold."

"Stop leaning out that window or you'll break your neck."

AN enterprising child, Marvin long since discovered that disobeying these demands did not result in the threatened explosion, pneumonia, broken bones. Gradually, he transferred trust of his mother's experience with reality to his own limited experience of it—and to act on his belief that he could get away with anything.

This is a pity. Sooner or later a policeman does become the consequence of stealing other people's property. When the threat Marvin believes empty becomes real, his sense of angry betrayal can turn him into a delinquent child.

As disasters are not always the consequence of children's misbehavior, we are mistaken to suggest they are. All we gain by our unrealistic threats is their contempt for realistic danger.

WE invoke disasters to make them do as we wish because we have so little respect for what we wish.

Had Marvin's mother respect for her own wishes, she'd never have mentioned a punishing policeman to him. Her own desire to see that tangerine replaced would have been more important than any policeman's desire to see it replaced.

When we ourselves feel no respect for our wishes, children lose it, too. It's only then that we have to delegate control of them to disasters—to punishing outside agencies like policemen, germs and broken bones.

Make Those Changes Early Or Forget About Them

ATTENTION, spring brides. It's almost impossible to change a husband once he gets set in his ways. Start him out right when the marriage is new.

Decide what jobs you think are "man's work" and leave them for him to do. Do them once and you'll be stuck with them.

Don't let him get into the habit of coming home night after night complaining he's tired. He owes you a little of his best self, too.

So instead of offering him sympathy and an easy chair, go ahead and cook up a little fun a few nights a week. A movie may do more to make him feel relaxed than sitting at home. There's nothing more tiring than boredom, and he'll soon be bored if you don't have any social life.

Set up some kind of business partnership so that you don't have to ask him for money. Having to ask a husband for money gets to be frustrating in a hurry.

THAT'S HIS RESPONSIBILITY
DON'T take on his responsibility to his family. It is much better to encourage him to write his parents than for you to take over the job. Your letters to them should be in addition to his, not in place of them.

Don't let your companionship be all one-sided. Let him share your interests as you share his.

Don't let him turn his pay check over to you. It is better for the man of the house to pay the bills. Wives who grab the purse strings early in marriage often find themselves saddled with all the financial worries.

It is much, much easier—as any experienced wife will tell you—to start a husband off on the right track than to try to switch him later on.

Encouraging Reports and Elections Highlight Grace Church Conference

The Rev. Harold Knappenberger, superintendent of the Methodist Jamestown District, presided over the quarterly conference session held Monday evening in Grace Methodist church.

Many fine reports of the year's work were given by officials of the church. Church School enrollment now stands at 1134, with church membership at 1344 full members.

Three retirements in official positions were noted; Herbert Samuelson served 25 years as treasurer of the Church School; Howard Smith completed seven years as Church School superintendent, and E. Rush Boyd completed 33 years as treasurer of the church. The financial secretary, Mrs. C. V. Courtney, reported in the last ten months over $26,000 has been received for current expenses and over $5,000 has been received for World Service and Conference Benevolences.

The following officials were elected:

Trustees: S. L. Chesnut, Robert C. Schorman, Norman A. Johnson, Ervina N. Branch, Russell W. Templeton, Robert R. Young, E. Rush Boyd, Howard A. Smith and Raymond Rapp.

Steward, Mrs. C. V. Courtney, Alvin Cable, Ervin Rader, LeRoy Conn, Phoebe Finley, Wendell Peterson, Edmund Bumber, Fritz Rieder, Mrs. S. H. Adams, Hadsal Wright, Donald Johnson, Matthew Hosie, Melvin Haupt, LeRoy Hammethek, Paul J. Reynolds, Mrs. Walter Mathyer.

Also, Arnold Whren, Ralph Dalrymple, W. D. McElwain, Ethel Baldensperger, Hazel Finley, Mrs. Howard Kulings, Emil Johnson, Mrs. Carrie Meredith, Kenneth Foreman, Earl Mohnkern, O. W. Kyler, Mrs. Andrew Nelson, T. R. Sponsler, Joseph Krimmel, Thomas Schorman.

Also, G. A. Carlson, Gail Bimber, Loyal Briggs, Eugene Nelson, Evelyn Boyd, Mrs. Eva Fuller, Mrs. Eva Passinger, M. G. Klinesilver, Mrs. D. D. Larimore, Walter Strong, J. H. Gardner, William Smith, Wayne Delschambre, Mrs. Florence Anderson and Charles Berry.

Among special officers elected were: Communion Stewards, Mrs. Knude Knudsen and Mrs. Andrew Nelson; lay delegate to annual conference, Robert R. Young and alternate, Mrs. James Marshall; charge lay leader, Henry Wyman; church school superintendent, Matthew Hosie; church treasurer, Arnold Whren; church school treasurer, Donald Johnson.

BUFFALO HOSPITAL GRADUATE HONORED

The Rev. and Mrs. Charles B. Kinney were in Buffalo last night to attend a banquet and ceremonies held at the Park Lane Hotel by the Buffalo General Hospital School of Nursing.

Purpose of the event, attended by about 125 persons, was recognition of Alumni Association members of 25 years or more. Among this group was Mrs. Kinney, who received a recognition diploma and new cap and was granted honorary membership in the Alumni Association.

MOTHERS' CLUB

Deep snow and wintry weather on Monday night failed to deter Young Mothers' Study Club members in attending their regular meeting at Tiny Town and watching six of their offspring model the latest in children's spring attire. Those performing so professionally were Judy Lundahl, Lisa Tranter, Ann Mathis, Sally Eaton, Billy Lasher, and Jeffrey Torrance.

Coffee and cookies were served following the meeting, the committee including Mrs. Chester Christensen, Mrs. Joseph Mathis and Mrs. Wendell Peterson.

Members were reminded to take clothing to the Children's Aid Society to complete the club project, also to bring pictures of their children to the next meeting for the club scrapbook.

Bishop of Episcopal Diocese Of Erie Guest Speaker for Warren Holy Week Services

The Rt. Rev. William Crittenden, D.D., bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Erie, with headquarters in Erie, will be the guest speaker for 957 community Holy Week services next Monday through Thursday.

This year's noon-day worship periods will be held in First Baptist church, 208 Market street, 12:20 to 12:50 p. m., and are, as usual, sponsored by the Warren County Ministerial Association.

A cordial welcome is extended to all in the community to attend these services and to hear Bishop Crittenden speak on the general theme "Christ's Way and Ours."

Before his election to the epis-copacy in 1952, Bishop Crittenden served as archdeacon of the Diocese of Southern Ohio and, prior to that, was national youth director of the Episcopal denomination.

BISHOP CRITTENDEN

For several years earlier, he had been student pastor and professor of religion at Lafayette College at Easton, Pa. Still earlier in his ministry, he was rector of St. John's church in North Adams, Mass., domestic missionary serving missions in Lanesboro and Dalton, Mass., and a curate in St. Paul's church in Brookline.

The Erie churchman is a graduate of Lafayette and of the Episcopal Theological Seminary in Cambridge, Mass.

Active in the ecumenical movement, Bishop Crittenden has represented the Episcopal Church at various meetings concerned with this important development in the life of the church.

He was advisor and senior delegate to the Youth Delegation of the First Assembly of the World Council of Churches, held in Amsterdam, Holland, in 1948 and was advisor to the Episcopal delegation at the Second World Conference of Christian Youth in Oslo, Norway in 1947.

He is, at present, a member of the board of directors of the Erie Council of Churches. As area bishop, he heads a diocese which is one of five in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. It is comprised of 13 counties in the northwest section of the state and embraces industrial areas, oil fields, and farming communities.

Use of Radar To Help Enforce Speed Laws Is Suggested

Harrisburg (AP)—Gov. Leader has urged the Legislature to legalize the use of radar to help enforce Pennsylvania speed laws.

The governor said the administration plans to introduce a 14-bill package of proposals on traffic safety as a means of reducing highway fatalities, which now average 1,700 a year in the commonwealth.

"We have reached the point where we must use every enforcement weapon possible if we are to reduce killings on our highways," the governor declared in a week-end statement.

"We are not playing games. Obviously this is a matter of life and death," he added.

O. D. Shipley, director of the State Highway Safety Bureau, said that in the package is a measure that would legalize chemical tests for suspected drunken drivers.

Shipley said that other parts of the package would provide for periodic re-examination of all licensed drivers over 65 and would require mental institutions furnish the bureau with information on the release of patients not considered competent to drive autos.

Builders Cheered by Lowering Down Payments on New Homes

By STERLING F. GREEN
Washington, (AP)—Builders and housing officials were cheered today by President Eisenhower's restoration of 5 per cent down payments on home purchases financed by government-insured mortgages.

But they predicted stronger medicine will be needed to cure the housing slump of the past 18 months.

Eisenhower has ordered the Federal Housing Administration (FHA) to cut the down payment from 7 to 5 per cent on the first $9,000 of the value of a new or old home bought with an FHA-insured mortgage, and from 27 to 25 per cent on the balance up to $20,000.

He also moved to relax a restriction on home mortgages by savings and loan associations.

Meanwhile, support was building up in Congress for further easing of home buying credit.

Shortly before the announcement, a House Banking Subcommittee approved an omnibus housing bill which would ease home buying terms even more, and provide an additional 2½ billion dollars worth of potential new government assistance.

FHA Commissioner Norman P. Mason, recalling that the higher terms were imposed in July, 1955 to "help curb an inflationary trend," said in a statement: "The administration believes that trend has been halted and there is now a need to spur home construction."

Albert M. Cole, chief of the Housing and Home Finance Agency (HHFA), predicted cautiously the action "would stimulate home building to some degree by bringing many families of limited income to the housing market.

The National Association of Home Builders said the reduction could not perk up home building appreciably unless it is supplemented by new credit-stimulating legislation.

Another Reminder
From the Collector
Of Income Taxes

District Director of Internal Revenue, John H. Binger, today reminded taxpayers that 1957 Declarations of Estimated Income Tax liability are due on April 15. This also is the final date for filing 1956 individual income tax returns.

Mr. Binger pointed out that you are liable for filing an estimated return under the following circumstances:

1. If you did not receive more than $100 income which was not subject to withholding, you need not file an estimated return unless your total income exceeds these amounts depending on your marital status:
Status                      Amount
Single                      $ 5000
Married (not entitled to file jointly)                      5000
Married (Entitled to file jointly)                      10000 Surviving Spouse                      10000
Head of Household                      10000
2. If you had more than $100 of taxable income which was not subject to withholding (dividends, interest, etc.) and your total income was more than $600 times the number of exemptions to which you are entitled, plus $400.

The requirements apply to every citizen of the United States, whether residing at home or abroad, and to every resident alien. Payment of at least one-fourth of the estimated tax is required to be made by April 15. Subsequent payments are due June 15, September 15, and January 15, 1958.

If anyone is uncertain as to whether or not he should file a declaration, he should call the local office of the Internal Revenue Service and ask for "tax information." The telephone number of the Warren office is 1199.

Question: What are some of the things I should know in planning for retirement?

Answer: Dr. Joseph H. Britton, associate professor of child development and family relationships, and chairman of the Committee for Study of Adulthood, says it is wise to plan ahead for retirement, and to know your essential costs of living. What can you give up and thereby reduce costs without reducing essential needs? Figure how much money you will have, and try living on that amount for several months before retiring. Plan to have some avocation which will keep you busy and interested and perhaps add a little to your income. You are not going to make a radical change as a person when you retire. It is best to make no sudden change in the place where you live without trying it out first—home means more than a roof over your head. Your friends, community, home and family probably mean happiness to you. Try living in a new place you think you like before selling the old home and buying a new one. These are only a few things which should be planned on ahead of retirement.

Question: If the "elder citizen" needs less energy food, should he cut down the number of his meals to two a day?

Answer: Dr. Mary L. Dodds, professor of foods and nutrition, says that it is entirely a personal matter and one should enjoy his eating at any age. A number of small meals may add a lot to the pleasure of the day. Less will be eaten at each sitting but the total for the day may be the same. Do it in the way that is best enjoyed. Even the night's rest might be improved with a light snack at bedtime.

Feed Grains Major Portion of Spring Crops Planted in State

Harrisburg, — As Pennsylvania farmers make progress with spring plowing and seeding they are guided in part on their total acreages for the various spring crops by the annual survey of prospective plantings made by the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service in the State Department of Agriculture.

The 1957 survey of farmer's intentions to plant, made as of March 1, revealed that the seven major spring crops will be grown this season on 4,679,000 acres compared with 4,730,000 acres last year. The total is 49,000 acres under the 10-year 1946-55 average.

Purpose of the annual survey is to assist growers generally in making such further changes in their acreage plans as may appear desirable, according to State Secretary of Agriculture William L. Henning.

Acreages finally planted this spring may turn out to be larger or smaller than indicated, by reason of weather conditions, price changes, labor supply, financial conditions and the agricultural program, also the effect of the report itself upon farmers' actions.

Feed grains constitute almost one-half of the total spring acreage in Pennsylvania and a reduction of two per cent is indicated. Farmers expect to plant 1,249,000 acres of corn four per cent lower than last year due to influence of the Soil Bank and a good crop in the south-central counties in 1956.

Some of the 52,000-acre reduction in corn is expected to be absorbed by increased plantings of oats. Intentions are for 529,000 acres in oats 24,000 more than last year.

Barley acreage seeded last fall, plus some spring barley, is expected to total 219,000 acres—down eight per cent from 1956.

At 51,000 acres, the 1957 potato plantings will be the smallest of record. Tobacco is expected to total 30,000 acres, the same as a year ago which was seven per cent below average. A six per cent reduction is planned for soybeans for all purposes, but the anticipated 52,000 acres would be four per cent above average.

This year's hay acreage at 2,249,000 acres is expected to be the same as a year ago. The crop on last year's acreage was good, but harvesting was very difficult in the western one-third of the State due to wet weather.

New seedings of alfalfa and clover have wintered over in good condition generally, the hard freeze of mid-January caused some winter-kill. Hay crops on March 1 were still mostly dormant with only very slight greening in the southeast.

CLOSING OBSOLETE SCHOOLS

Uniontown (A)—Fayette County plans to close 13 of 21 county school buildings listed by the state as obsolete. A J. McMullen, superintendent of schools, said the 21 buildings are not "critical" fire hazards. He said most are one-story structures and the others have fire escapes. McMullen also pointed out that a federal school facility survey in 1952 showed 93 school buildings in the county were obsolete. Since then, he said, 72 have been closed.

YOUR FOREST RANGER

The world of Nature has many curious examples of protective coloring, adaptation to hostile environments, remarkable sight, mimicry and protective armor. Each is designed to protect the particular animal against his enemies.

One of the best examples of protective armor can be found right here on the Allegheny National Forest in the common porcupine. His armor is nothing more than a special development of the fur into sharp pointed, rigid quills or spines. Viewed from a distance the entire body of a porcupine appears to be covered with coarse fur because the quills lie flat. When danger threatens he raises his quills by special muscles on the underside of the skin. When these quills are at "battle stations" they stick out in every direction. His most formidable defense is his tail which he can whip around when attacked and cover a dog's muzzle with a grey beard consisting of hundreds of barb-tipped quills. The quills are so lightly attached to the porcupine's body that once the tips enter the skin of an attacking animal they remain there. If not removed promptly they work deeper into the flesh by muscular action. Death may result if they penetrate a vital spot. It is this delayed action of a porcupine's defense that has caused so much trouble for dogs foolish enough to attack it.

Porcupines eat juicy ground vegetation mostly during the summer months and it is then that dogs meet up with them on the ground. In the fall and winter they eat mostly the bark of trees. They are particularly fond of hemlock twigs and needles. Many large hemlocks are killed by defoliation in the winter when deep snows confine a porcupine to a single large tree top for weeks.

On the Allegheny National Forest porcupines do considerable damage to hardwood trees by girdling them. If the girdle is complete death results. If only partial, the growth is slowed down and the wound affords entrance to rot producing fungi. Porcupine damage is not confined to standing timber and to the muzzles of dogs, but also involves property damage to summer homes and hunting camps. Many camps have had porch railings eaten away, porch and interior floors damaged and even doors eaten through by the porcupine's sharp, curved teeth. Rubber hose lines on road graders have been eaten away and leather articles, such as inneman's belts or knapsack straps are quickly ruined by these animals. Even aluminum signs are often chewed on by them.

The young porcupine often weighs more at birth than the young of the black bear. He has a full coat of soft fur at birth but this soon stiffens and the curious quills result. This unsocial animal eats solid food a few days after birth and before he is half grown he leaves his mother and is on his own.

Useless as these animals seem to us, the American Indian used the white quills, which they dyed with bright vegetable dyes, to make embroidery on moccasins, other articles of clothing and on birch bark baskets.

Despite the porcupine's formidable armor against his four footed enemies he is very easily killed by man. Anyone who has emptied his repeating rifle into a porcupine's fat body, without apparently killing it, might think otherwise. But the same small stick that can kill a rattlesnake so easily will kill a porcupine just as easily. All it takes is a light blow on the nose.

THE FINAL SKETCH

It's Not Too Late, Youngsters, To Join the Fun
In Our Bugs Bunny Easter Coloring Contest

This is it, kids—the final sketch of our BUGS BUNNY EASTER COLORING CONTEST. The first sketches already have appeared in the Times-Mirror and we hope you found objects that were hidden in them and then did your best job of coloring.

In this sketch Porky Pig is getting a big kick out of finding Easter eggs, and ol' Bugs seems to be enjoying the fun, too. Now we suggest you help Porky Pig hunt. It will help you find one of the two hidden objects in the picture. And when you do, look around until you find the other hidden object. It's something that always has to do with Easter time.

As with the first two sketches, color the hidden objects and then use crayons or paints on the complete picture. You can make it look mighty pretty if you take your time and do a neat job.

Remember to hold all three sketches until you have completed them and signed your name, age and address. Then mail or bring them to the BUGS BUNNY CONTEST EDITOR of The Times-Mirror.

Let us remind you again to be sure to put color on the objects hidden in the sketches before you color the complete drawing. You have a fine chance to win prizes which will consist of Library Theatre tickets for the colorings of the 10 top youngsters.

CONTEST RULES

1. Every girl and boy up to 12 years old, except children of the employees of this newspaper is eligible.
2. Clip all three Bugs Bunny sketches. Find and color the hidden objects. Then color the whole sketch without interfering with the color on the hidden objects.
3. Print your name and address at the bottom of each sketch, and mail or bring all three sketches in one batch to the BUGS BUNNY CONTEST EDITOR of The Times-Mirror.
4. All entries must be received by Tues., April 16.
5. Judging will be on the basis of hidden objects correctly indicated with color, and the neat coloring of the complete sketch.
6. Winners will be announced Friday, April 19.

Lander—Stuart Van Ord, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Van Ord, has arrived home from Fort Lewis, Wash., where he received his discharge from the Army.

He was inducted at Fort Dix, N. J., on April 6, 1955; had his basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.; attended schools in Aberdeen, Md., and Atlanta, Ga., and worked in machine maintenance at Fort Lewis.

Five members of the Lander Girl Scout Troop and their leader, Mrs. Lloyd Ferry, met with the Russell Troop to practice their Ace of Diamonds number for the Folk Festival to be held in Warren in May.

Eleanor Rowland, Norma Mills and Mrs. Donald Hagberg entertained with a variety shower honoring Patricia Meley, who will become the bride of Lavern Hagberg April 27. Games and contests were enjoyed, with prizes going to Mrs. Ronald Carlson, Mrs. Richard Wenzel and the honored one. A buffet luncheon featured table decorations of forsythia and yellow tapers and the honored guest was presented with lovely gifts from guests present from Warren, North Warren, Sugar Grove, and Lander.

Survey by Forest Service Reveals 9.9 Inches of Snow

The wintry blasts of the past week have placed a new blanket of heavy snow on the country side. Measurements were made yesterday at ten established snow courses on the Allegheny National Forest scattered from northwest to McKean County to Whig Hill in Forest County. E. M. Bacon, Forest Supervisor, announced today. The snow pack averaged 9.9 inches in depth and 1.9 inches in water content.

The course near Marshburg in McKean County showed the deepest snow and highest water content, 14.2 inches and 2.2 inches, respectively.

The least snow and water content was recorded at Allegheny Picnic Area, 5 miles east of Warren—7.8 inches and 1.5 inches. At higher elevations the trend is less snow in the southwestern part of the Forest.

Each course is 200 feet long and ten samples were measured and weighed for water content at each one. Courses are located to sample snow conditions at various elevations between 1260 and 2109 feet above sea level. The survey made yesterday is the fourth conducted since January 31.

The purpose of the survey is to gather basic information on snow accumulations as a factor in water yields on the National Forest. The results of each survey are also reported to the Weather Bureau in Pittsburgh to use in river forecasting.

Personal Message

cial presentation of the building passed first from Walter Campbell, representing the architectural firm of Hunter, Campbell & Rea to Earl Shea of Pennsylvania's Public School Building Authority, to Travers Stohberg, president of Northern Area Joint School System.

Mr. Stohberg in turn passed the symbolic keys of ownership to Student Council representative Miss Nancy Kirby, who, in another excellent address, again accepted the keys as a token of gratitude to be passed on to still younger generations.

Board president Stohberg, in commenting that the keys were only symbolic, pointed out that the real owner of the building for the next 31 years would be the state building authority. "But," he added, "when the costs of education are figured, they are well worth the price. When you consider some 21,000,000 student hours over that period, the individual cost per student hour is in the neighborhood of 3 1/2 cents." (The Jointure, he observed, would pay 80 percent of an estimated $1,500,000).

It was this same theme of the comparatively small cost of education which was stressed by principal speaker Dr. Ralph Rackley, Pennsylvania State University Education School Dean.

"The costs," he said, "will not be considered in the future as the misguided expenditures of those who passed before us. Instead, they become a part of the tradition of our culture, which is to educate our children, as they in turn will educate their children, from generation to generation."

The Rev. James Fisher, Sugar Grove Presbyterian church minister, closed the program with benediction.

But perhaps it was Mr. Stewart who best captured thoughts of the many persons assembled for dedication of this new building when he said: "The first group which I am going to introduce is that without whose work, guidance, foresight and general assistance this building would have been impossible."

"Rise, please, all citizens of the Northern Area Jointure."

Budget

Spent for county purposes last year was $356,280. When this was combined with $125,125 for institutional expenses the total Warren county budget amounted to $481,405. County and institutional millage were six and three.

This year the county will spend $427,247 for general purposes, $120,795 for institutional expenses, making a total outlay of $548,042. County and institutional millages are eight and two and one-half.

When applied against the total county evaluation of $33,500,000 on real estate and occupations, the estimated net yield for county purposes will be $241,200 and $75,375 for institutions. Other income sources will increase county revenue to almost $400,000.

ger service between Warren and New York going into effect the end of April. The local Chamber, along with others in the area have been protesting the PRR service for some time and the Directors expressed pleasure at the news of better and faster service announced this week.

The Board gave a vote of appreciation to the street department of Warren borough which did a fine job of snow removal and clearance following the severe snow storm Monday night.

The meeting was concluded by the showing of a movie "What is a Chamber of Commerce" produced by the United States C. of C.

BOX ALARMS FIXED
Borough firemen reported today that all fire box alarms which had been put out of commission when heavy snow broke the lines Tuesday were back in operation today. Firemen also reported there had been no recurrence of a flash fire resulting from spilled gasoline which sent all equipment to J & R Esso Station on Pennsylvania avenue, west, yesterday morning.

RIVER RECESSES

A brief flood scare which developed after 3.6 inches of precipitation built up Monday and Tuesday, headed for Pittsburgh today as Allegheny River level kept receding. It was down to seven feet today, after a high of slightly above ten feet. Even Beatty Field, traditional dunking ground, began to dry today and looked as if the intrasquad track meet could be held Friday.

Athletic Event Schedules for 1957-1958 Are Announced at Warren High School

Warren High School athletic director Joe Massa has announced his schedule of track, football, basketball and wrestling events which shall grace the schoolboy sport picture for the next year.

Football season, which kicks off Friday night, September 13th against Corry, will open a card that lists traditional Dragon rivals including tough Erie Academy on Memorial Field Saturday, November 16th, to close the season. Jamestown game will be Saturday night, Nov. 9th, at Jamestown. All four other out-of-town games will be played Friday night.

The gridiron contenders promise a full workout for new head coach Ralph Veights, his assistants and team.

Most topical schedule released in its final form is that of track which opens next Wednesday, April 17 with a Beaty Field romp against Titusville. Newcomer to track scheduling this year is a chance to compete in the Olean, N. Y. relay circus on Monday, May 20, according to Coach Loyal Briggs who anticipates another fine season.

Basketball season opens Saturday night again, just as it did last year. And again, that first opponent on Nov. 30 will be Erie Academy. A week later Blue and White hoopers will face another tough squad at home Saturday in the form of Erie Tech which makes its reappearance on local schedules.

Basketball coach Joe Massa will lose some of his best players through graduation, will be building again this year after one of his best seasons in recent years just completed.

Wrestling groans away at DuBois on Dec. 6 and Hall Miller, coach, will have some of his best boys moving into higher weight classes as they develop. Typical confidence has the schedule run right up to the state finals, though regionals generally spell s-t-o-p for the locals.

Roberto Clemente Having Trouble With Ailing Back

Fort Myers, Fla. (AP)—Roberto Clemente, the sparkling Pittsburgh Pirate outfielder who hit .311 for the Pittsburgh Pirates last season, reportedly has told manager Bobby Bragan he may head for home if his ailing back does not improve soon.

Clemente has received X-ray and other examination but no one has been able to explain what causes Clemente's persistent pain. The other day he asked to be taken out of an exhibition game and Bragan, along with the other brass, is worried.

BIG PRODUCTION—Television people are used to big problems in putting together a show, but Steve Allen found his small compared to what rival college coaches faced all season with Wilt Chamberlain. The seven-foot Kansas stilt came on Allen's show to collect his NEA All-America certificate.

Grayson's Scoreboard

SCOTSDALE, Ariz.—(NEA)—Scottsdale is a modern replica of an old far-western town—the Williamsburg, Va., of Arizona.

Trying to get more mileage out of the Orioles at smacking new Scottsdale Stadium, Paul Richards wishes that the major leagues would bring their competitive setup as up-to-date as this delightful different resort in the Valley of the Sun.

Manager Richards got the Baltimore club to sixth place over the dead bodies of the Senators and Athletics last trip, and hopes to win more games this, but the onetime catcher doesn't talk anything like Will Harridge.

President Harridge once more anticipates a closer fight and improved attendance. He makes like the Yankees are no longer in the American League, which, as a matter of fact, they are not. The Bombers actually are a wide rung out of the wheel, perhaps as many as 15 games in front of the other seven outfits.

RICHARDS HAS TO TACKLE the Yankees, however, and from him you get a vastly more refreshing and constructive view of the present lopsided condition of the circuit.

"An unrestricted draft would balance the league in three years," repeats Richards, one eye on Charley Beamon, a strapping 22-year-old Negro purchased from the lowly Vancouver Coastlers last fall in time to shut out Whitney Ford and the Yankees.

"An unlimited draft would be the greatest forward step taken by organized baseball since Branch Rickey inaugurated the farm system. By unrestricted I mean that any player not included in the 28 a parent club may carry on opening day would be subject to draft."

RICHARDS WOULD VOTE for an unrestricted draft for the good of the minor leagues as a whole. It would enable independent operators to prosper. Then a club such as Baltimore would have a more equal chance at buying players from the minors after they had acquired a little experience.

An unlimited draft would expedite the advancement of players, now shackled to major league clubs for seven years, four in the minors. It would also take a lot of puff out of the sails of legislative proposals which would make organized baseball subject to antitrust laws.

The way things are now most minor league clubs are owned or directed by major league outfits. Entire minor leagues have been wiped out by the telecasting of major league games into their territory and whatnot, so the pickings are slim for a big league club requiring elaborate rebuilding.

TO GRASP THE MAGNITUDE of a job like his, which is to make the old St. Louis Browns salable around Chesapeake Bay, Richards asks you to take into consideration that the Yankees are 30 years or more ahead of the Orioles.

"How can we ever catch up when the Yankees are able to control as many as 400 or 500 players for seven years?" he wants to know.

With the championship practically conceded to the Yankees before a shot is fired, and their dominance becoming more monotonous each year, the American League have-nots finally are concerned about and searching for a fairer deal in the open market.

STICKY BUSINESS—Mud-spattered opponents come together with a loud bang battling for the ball in a Rugby match at Richmond Athletic Ground in London. The mayhem-minded combatants are members of British hospital teams. It's a good bet they will be needing, rather than giving medical aid.

Round - By - Round Fist Fight and Disputed Goal Scores Available Highlight Calder Cup Contest In Tonight's Fight

Miami, Fla. (AP)—Television viewers across the country may be able to keep an official round-by-round tab tonight on progress of the Davey Moore-Gil Cadillac featherweight bout in Miami's Biscayne Arena. The seventh-ranked Cadillac is a 9-5 favorite.

The Miami Boxing Commission said it would make round-by-round scores available to broadcasters if the International Boxing Club didn't object. IBC Director Harry Markson in New York said the matter was up to the Miami board. Use of the scores, if supplied, would be optional with the broadcasters and sponsors.

This will be the first TV action for Moore, who turned pro after winning the 1952 national AAU title and qualified for the Olympics.

Cleveland (AP)—A fist fight and a disputed goal kept 4,318 hockey fans in a frenzy here last night as the Cleveland Barons scored in the opening seconds of an overtime period to defeat the Rochester Americans, 2-1, in the first game of the American Hockey League's Calder Cup finals.

The game winning shot was fired by the Barons' Ron Ingram from just inside the blue line.

The Barons' defense got off to a shaky start and it looked in the early stages of the game as though Rochester might run away with it. After Bronco Horvath hit for a Rochester goal at 5:23 of the first period the Barons' bucked up and held the Americans scoreless the rest of the way.

At 5:59 of the second period John McClellan back handed a short shot past Rochester Goaltie Bob Perrault, tying the game 1-1.

In the overtime, the Barons jammed in immediately and Ingram fired his long shot into the Rochester nets. Goaltie Perrault, whose vision was partially obscured by the press of players, apparently failed to see Ingram's shot.

The disputed goal, which was disallowed, came at 18:06 of the third period on a rush by Mike Nykoluk and Ron Hurst which caught the Barons' defense napping.

Goalie Marcel Paille made a save and then Hurst pumped in another shot that was disallowed because Nykoluk had been in the goal crease illegally. The Americans raged in protest but the ruling was allowed to stand.

A fist fight between Hurst and the Barons' Ken Hayden resulted in cuts over the eyes of both players. Hayden's wounds required four stitches to close and Hurst's two.

The Barons will meet Rochester on their home ice tomorrow in the second of the best-of-seven series.

The first submarine to actually sink another enemy vessel under combat conditions was the Confederate "Hunley" built during the Civil War.

Roster of the City Softball League To Contain Six Teams

Six teams became the official roster of City Softball League at a meeting last night presided over by Frank Fiesli.

Teams are Texas Lunch, Nino's, East Side Merchants, Jones Chevrolet in Sheffield, Lacy's Confectionary and Culligans.

All team managers are reminded they must bring $62 in team registration fees to the next meeting scheduled for Tuesday, April 23 in WNAE studio. Of that sum $25 is for registration, the rest for balls.

Season is scheduled to open competition May 20th and managers must submit a roster of 15 names the Monday previous.

Tentative plans, depending on number of rainouts call for three rounds of 15 games in the first half. Rainy weather may cut a second half to only two rounds.

Observations Of An A. P. Baseball Camp Follower

New York, (P)—Observations of a baseball camp follower returned home after a seven-week tour of the 12 major league spring training camps in Florida.

Best looking team — Milwaukee Braves

Most improved team—St. Louis Cardinals

Most confident club—New York Yankees

Most spectacular hitter — Stan Musial, Cardinals—24 hits in 51 times at bat for 471.

Most spectacular hitting feat—Harvey Kuenn, Tigers—5 for 5 with two doubles, a home run and five runs batted in against Redlegs, March 26.

Most spectacular pitching feat—Johnny Podres, Dodgers, faced only 18 batters in pitching six hitless and runless innings against Yankees March 25.

Most disappointing hitter—Hank Bauer, Yankees, went 0 for 21 until he finally snapped slump with a single.

Most disappointing pitchers — Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell, Cardinals, and Don Larsen, Yankees. Mizell turned in five straight poor mound performances, striking out only two batters; Larsen turned in only one good performance in four outings.

Most improved hitters—Johnny Temple, Redlegs, Gino Cimoli, Dodgers; and Bubba Phillips, White Sox.

Most improved pitchers — Red Murff, Braves; Don Drysdale, Dodgers; and Duke Maas, Tigers.

Plenty of Aches and Pains in Pirate Camp

Fort Myers, Fla., (P)—There are plenty of aches and pains in the Pittsburgh Pirate training camp.

Infielder Johnny O'Brien has a sore knee and outfielder Roberto Clemente has been complaining of a back ache.

The latest to come up with an injury is pitcher Ronnie Kline. He pulled a leg muscle in Saturday's game against the Boston Red Sox. Further examinations are scheduled to determine the seriousness of the injury.

Manager Bobby Bragan has asked how the injury to his No. 2 starter would affect the pitching schedule. He replied:

"I would guess that either Dick Hall or Laurin Pepper would take Kline's spot in the rotation. But I won't make a definite pick until I get a report on Ronnie."

Tennis

San Juan, Puerto Rico—Mervyn Rose, and Don Candy, both of Australia, won their first round matches in their international tournament.

Cannes, France — Jaroslav Drobny, Egypt, and Austria's Freddie Huber won the men's doubles championship in an international tournament.

Spieser, the top-ranked challenger to Moore's title

The third-ranked Anthony will meet Moore June 7 in Detroit in a 15-round title match

A 13-5 underdog despite 22 previous knockouts, Anthony was masterful in victory. He outboxed the home town favorite in the first round with sharp jabs. Anthony never let his foe get set for the punishing in-fighting for which he is noted Cracking Spieser's defense in the second Anthony decked his opponent late in the round with a hard right to the cheek and two left hooks. The bell saved Spieser.

Staggered early in the third round, Spieser rallied momentarily, but Anthony rallied Spieser for keeps at the 2:12 mark with a straight right and a left hook.

The 27-year-old Spieser, who was Anthony's teammate on the 1952 Olympic boxing team, said he picked up the count at eight but lacked the strength to get to his feet.

FUNERAL INFORMATION WILL BE FOUND UNDER ANOTHER HEADING

EDWARD W. SHAW

Edward W. Shaw of Tylersburg, formerly employed by the Pennsylvania Game Commission, died Tuesday morning in the home of his daughter in Erie. He was 67. Born in Kelleysville July 26, 1889, he was the son of John and Ida Grove Shaw.

He was a game commissioner for about 30 years, retiring in 1950. Mr. Shaw was married to the former Alice Lease, who survives. In addition to his widow, he is survived by five children, Jack and Lee of Erie, Mrs. Elizabeth DeGolyer and Mrs. Ruth Goluberski of Erie, and Wayne of Saegertown.

Also surviving are seven grandchildren; one sister, Lulu Dunkle of Warren, and one brother, William Shaw of Warren. Services will be held at Tionesta Friday morning at eleven o'clock. Interment will be in the Laurel Hill cemetery at Erie.

SERAFINO GIGLIOTTI

Serafino Gigliotti, well known resident of 28 South Pine street and familiarly known as "Sam" to his wide circle of friends, died at the Keystone Nursing Home at 2:45 a. m. today, aged 80 years. Mr. Gigliotti was born in Italy on January 19, 1877, and had lived here since 1902. He was a retired Pennsylvania Railroad Company employee, having worked for that firm for 50 years. He was a member of St. Joseph's parish; also a charter member and former secretary of the Marconi Club.

Surviving are his wife, Gemma, and the following children: Frank, Albany, N. Y.; Julius, Erie; Mrs. Edith Magnio and Mrs. Victoria Annis, Jamestown, N. Y.; Mrs. Josephine Roberti, Irvine; Sam D. Gigliotti, Mrs. Mary DeMarco, Mrs. Antoinette Salerno, Mrs. Sophia Falvo and Mrs. Rose Ponick, Warren; also 24 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services in his memory will be held at 10:00 a. m. Friday in St. Joseph's church, with interment following in St. Joseph's cemetery.

IRENE V. ANDERSON

Largely attended services were held at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday for Miss Irene Victoria Anderson, 117 West Fifth avenue, one of the area's best known registered nurses before illness forced her retirement from active duty.

Among those attending the rites were four members of her Warren General Hospital School of Nursing class of seven, graduated in 1923.

The Rev. Beecher M. Rutledge, rector of Trinity Memorial church, officiated and the following served as bearers for interment in the family plot in Maple Grove cemetery at Frewsburg: Wendell Kahle, Marshall Morrow, Gail Cobb, George Cobb, James Torrance and David Smith.

Present from away were Mrs. Stina Parker, New York City; Arthur Anderson, Jamestown, N. Y.

WALTER M. STREICH

Word has been received by Fred Streich that his brother, Walter Melchor Streich, formerly of Warren, died April 8 in Kalamazoo, Mich.

Mr. Streich was born in Emporium November 19, 1896, and served with the Marine Corps' Fifth Regiment in France during World War I. He was a long-time employee of the Conewango Furniture Company in Warren, leaving about 25 years ago to go to Kalamazoo to take up paper-making.

Other survivors are a sister, Mrs. Harry Segge, Battle Creek, Mich.; four brothers, Henry, in Flint, Mich.; Charles and Harold, Kalamazoo; and Raymond, Tucson, Ariz. He was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melchor Streich, and two brothers, Edwin and Elmer.

Funeral services and interment will take place in Kalamazoo on Thursday.

MISS HAZEL KIMBLE

Miss Hazel Kimble, resident of Tidioute for many years, died about 11:00 a. m. today at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Summerton, having been in failing health for some time.

Born in White Gravel, McKean county, on March 24, 1895, she is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Summerton, Mrs. Kate Lynch and Miss Leila Kimble, all of Tidioute.

Funeral services will be held in Tidioute at 2:00 p. m. Saturday, the Rev. R. E. Goode, of the Methodist church, officiating and interment following in Tidioute cemetery.

MRS. KATHRYN DUNKLE

Mrs. Kathryn Dunkle, 81 year old resident of Youngsville, died about 6:30 a. m. today at the Knapp Nursing Home in Corry, having been in poor health for some time.

Mrs. Dunkle was born in Corsica, Clarion county, on June 11, 1875, and had lived in this area for 35 to 40 years.

The widow of Arthur Dunkle, she leaves six children: Roy, Rochester, N. Y.; Harry, Spring Creek RD; Arthur, Jr., Cranberry Lake, N. Y.; Mrs. Sara Hodges and Mrs. Laura Schwanke, Youngsville; Mrs. Bessie Ireland, Columbus; 15 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren: one sister, Mrs. James Flanagan, Johnsbury.

She was a member of Youngsville Methodist church and her pastor, the Rev. J. Norman Holder, will conduct services in her memory at 2:00 p. m. Saturday. Interment will follow in Youngsville cemetery.

Area Men Enlisted For Navy Service

Pete Prelog, local Navy recruiter with headquarters in the post office building, announces acceptance of two recent enlistees and their assignment to Bainbridge, Md., for recruit training.
Charles Frederick Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walter Stewart of Pittsfield RD 1, was accepted under the high school program and enlisted April 3 in Buffalo, N. Y., for four years' service. Young Stewart was graduated from Northern Area High School and had one year of college at Bob Jones University in South Carolina.

The second enlistee was Thomas Martin Landblade, Kinzua, son of the late Mrs. Margaret Marie Landblade of Wittich, O. His acceptance as a seaman recruit was a minority enlistment, his release from active duty to take place the day before his 21st birthday anniversary. He formerly attended Beatty Junior High School in Warren.

Upon completion of their basic training, both young men will have a 14-day leave before being assigned to their next school or duty station.

IRVINE

Irvine—WSSC members of the Methodist church held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Otto Bliss, with devotions and the missionary program conducted by the president, Mrs. Laura Wing. During the routine business session, it was voted to give an Easter gift of $25 to Ed Stokes of Youngsville; plans were made for a rummage sale April 12-13 in Youngsville; refreshments were served by the hostess. Next meeting of the group will be held at the home of Mrs. Oliver Olson.

Mrs. Laura Sweetland, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Franklin, Jamestown, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bliss.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Olson were called to Kane Saturday by the illness of his sister, Mrs. Laura Lindemuth.
Friends of Clarence Stoult, patient in Warren General Hospital, will be pleased to learn he is much improved.

YOUNGVILLE

Youngsville—Kenny Harris, who suffered a near-drowning accident Sunday, returned home Monday and is receiving the congratulations of all his friends on his speedy recovery.
The Christian Service Sunday School Class of the Methodist church held its regular business and social meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lyon, with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Donaldson assisting. Carl Henton presided and conducted the devotions in the absence of the president, William Baughman. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Carr, Warren, who told about their trip to Salt Lake City last summer, illustrating with slides. Mrs. Mark Shurwin is the teacher.
